VOLUME XV

“How many utterly drab and uninteresting people are there in the world who might have developed real personalities if they had only had the courage to do and be something different from the crowd.

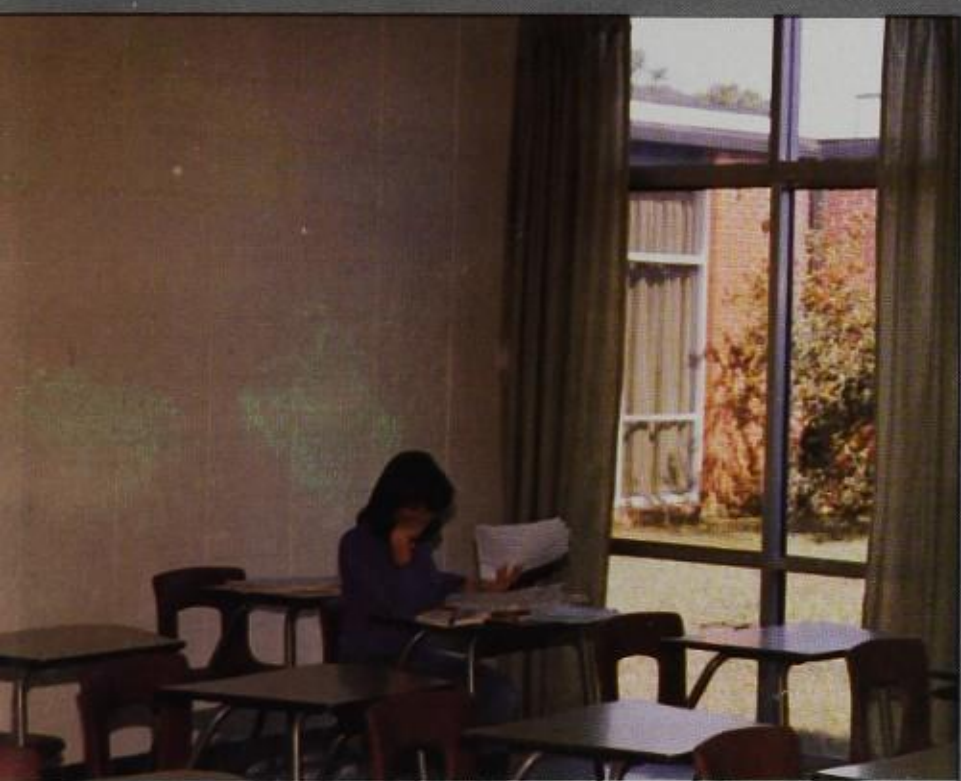

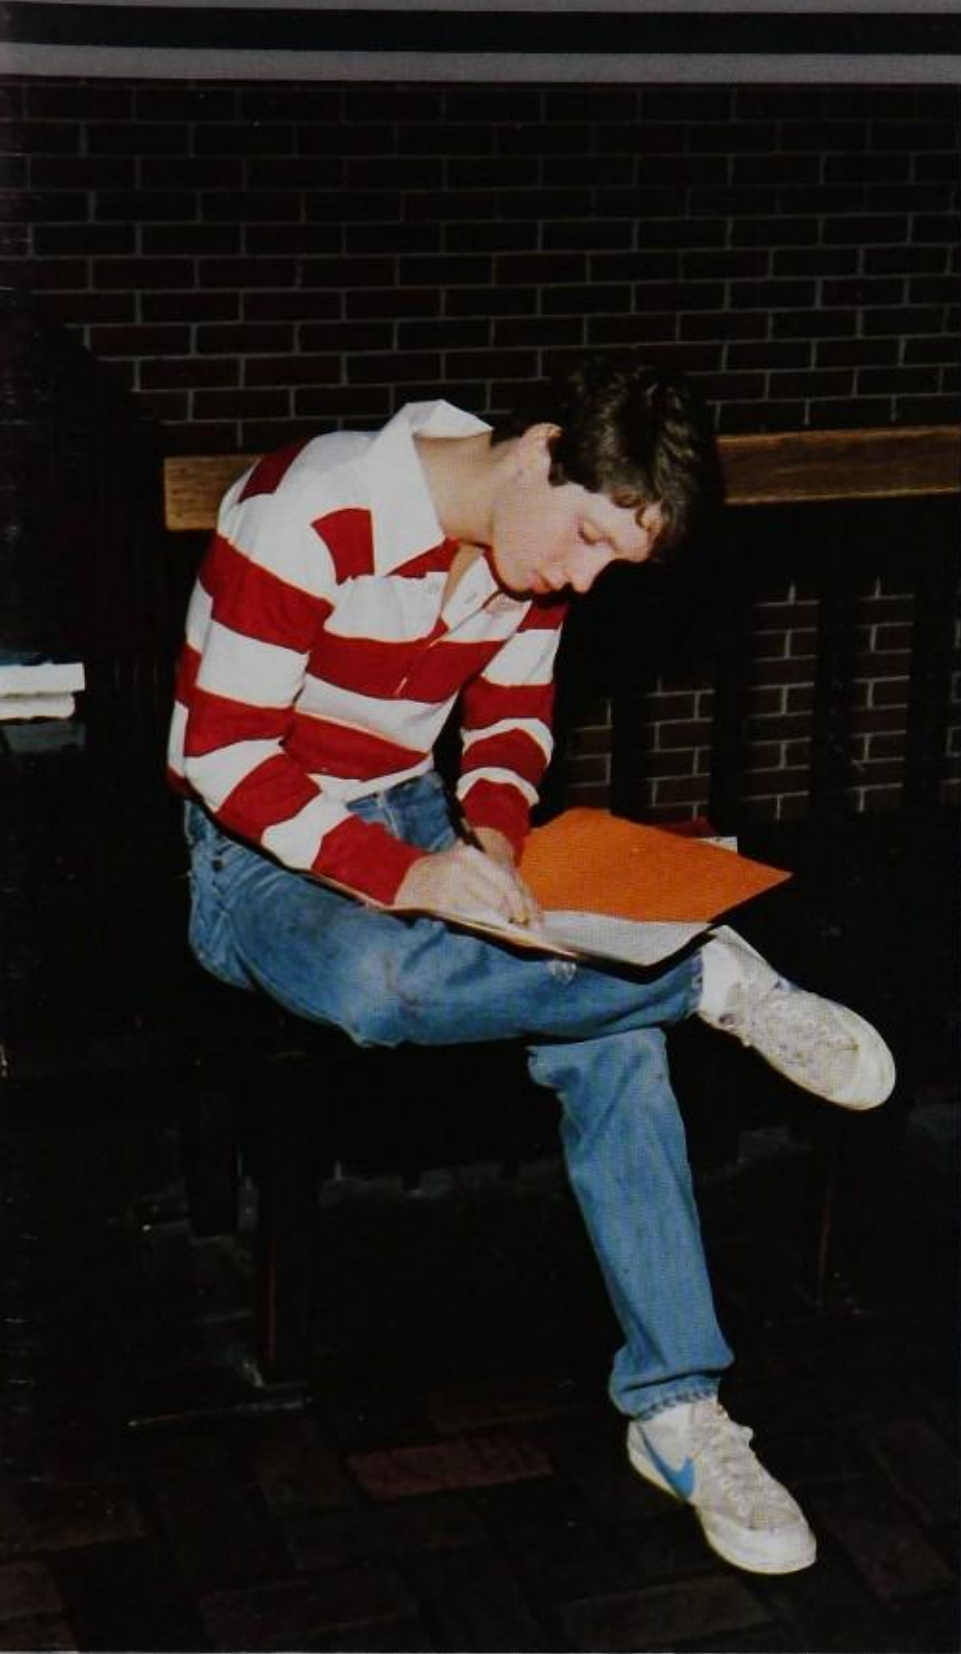

If you have anything really valuable to contribute to the world, it will come through the expression of your own personality — that single spark of divinity that sets you off and makes you different from every other living creature.”

—Bruce Barton

We celebrate the unique spirit within every man. We dedicate this book to the individual.

“Life consists not in holding good cards but in playing those you do hold well.”

— Josh Billings

“The ignorant man marvels at the exceptional; the wise man marvels at the common.”

— George Boardman

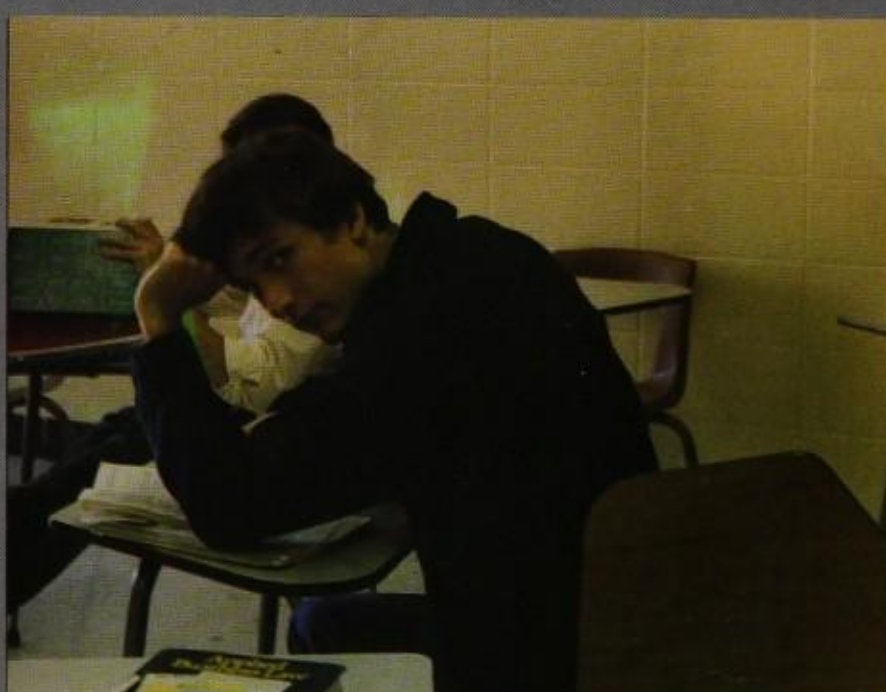

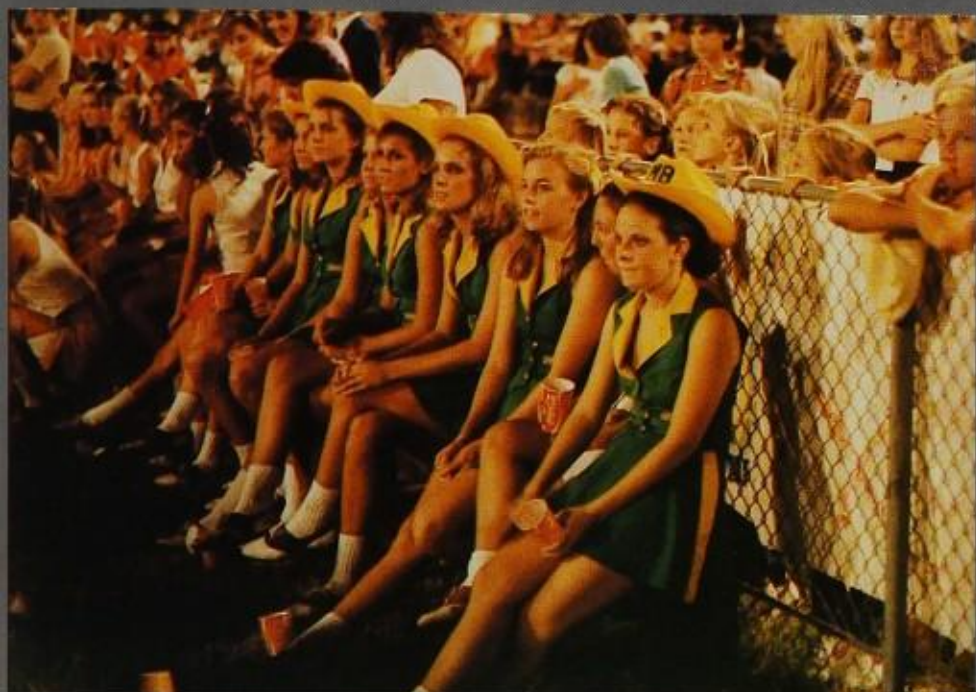

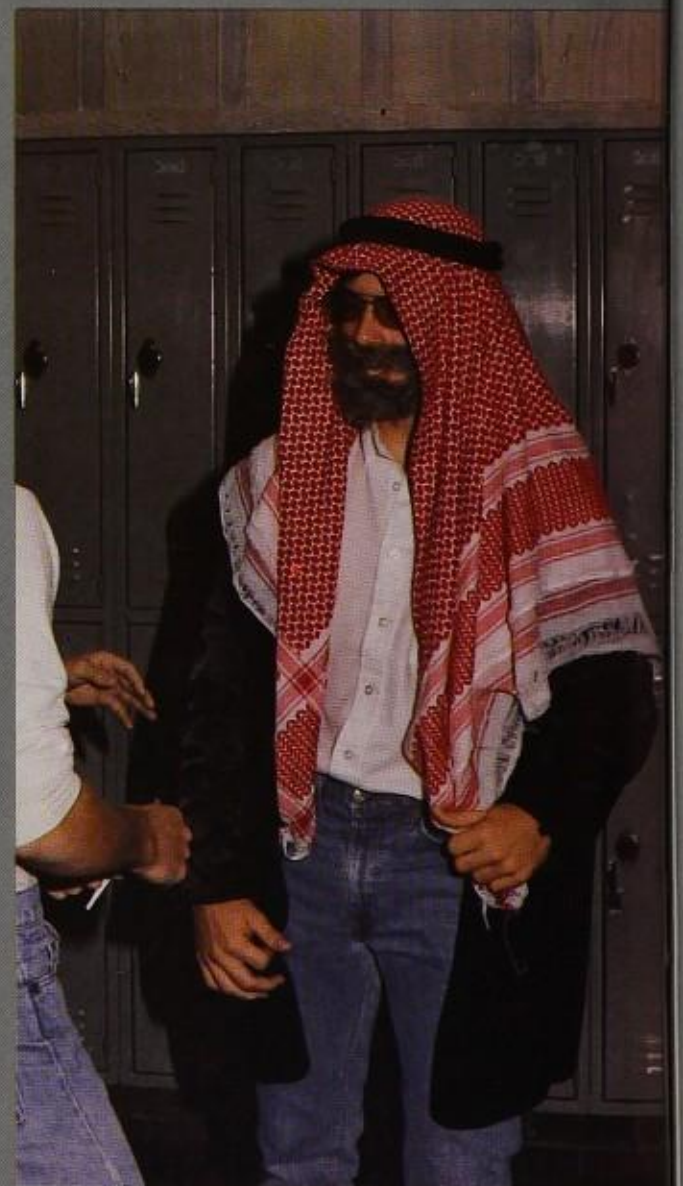

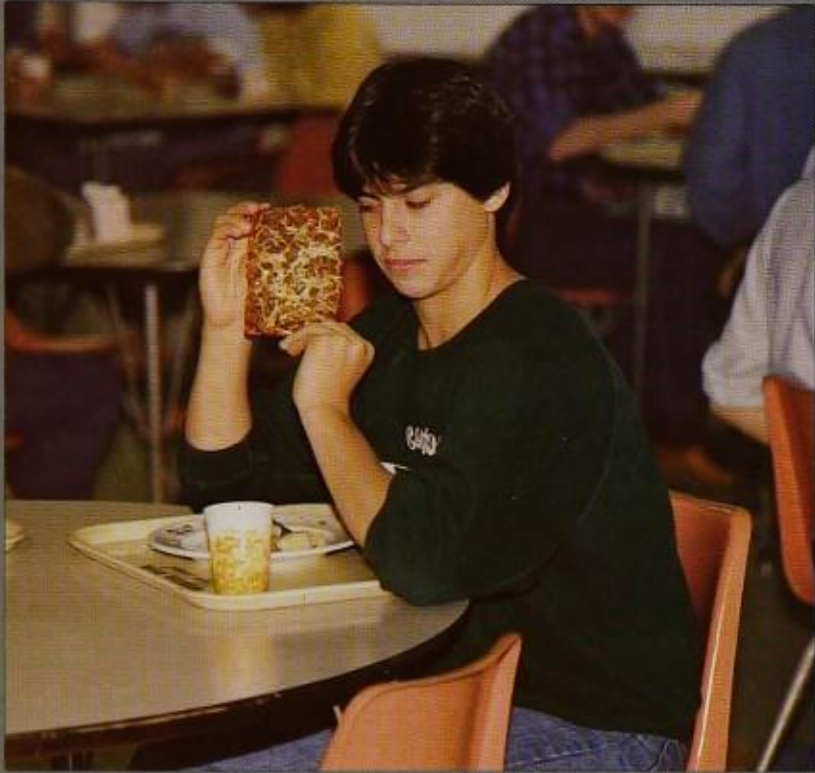

“People are always blaming their circumstances for what they are. I don’t believe in circumstances . . .”

The people who get on in the world are the people who get up and look for the circumstances they want, and if they can't find them, make them."

— George Bernard Shaw

“Enjoy your own life without comparing it with that of another.”

— Marquis de Condorcet

The fighting Spartans experienced a disappointing season. With perhaps one of the toughest schedules in the state, they compiled a record of one win and eight losses. Their record fails to show the effort exhibited by the Spartans. The young team, consisting of only eight seniors, had tremendous spirit and determination throughout the entire season. Lee Amberson was named Birmingham Post Herald player of the week because of his outstanding play in Mountain Brook's victory over Pell City. Tony Martin and Scott Farr were named the team's Most Valuable Players while Sorrell Chew was the Most Improved Player.

The members of the team, under the leadership of Coach Wellingham, showed tremendous effort in all of the games they played. The enthusiasm of this Spartan team was great. The team elected Stewart Yerton and Barr Wagstaff as the Most Valuable Players, and Andy Bell was named Captain.

CONCLUSION

“Afoot and light-hearted I take to the open road;
Healthy and free, the world before me,
The long brown path before me
leading wherever I choose.
Henceforth I ask not good fortune,
I myself am good fortune;
Henceforth I whimper no more,
postpone no more, need nothing . . .
Strong and content I travel the open road.”

— Walt Whitman

Clark, CPR is swell, and your a peach. Bally-ell, etc. Keen how this year went by so swiftly. Driving the cars was groovy and gubbing the dummies was far out. Your scooter really cooks, you dude, you.
Maybe, etc too, persistence, can achieve ~~out~~ outrageous greatness through my totalitarian idolization of you and purchase a larger two-wheeled apparatus. Your four wheeled mechanical wonder is the ultimate in off road vehicles. Your thoughts, idealisms, and trixythons are ~~so~~ radical and you are hip. Have a keen-bean of a summer.

John
